1687-1859

Doolittle Family Collection

Approximately 154 papers, 1687, 1737, 1750, 1775-1855, mainly concerning real estate and settlement of estates in Cheshire, Conn., involving the Doolittle family, the earliest of whom represented are Moses Doolittle, 1702-1751, and Ambrose Doolittle, 1719-1793, whose descendants intermarried. A large number of the papers concern a grandson of Moses Doolittle, Andrew Hull, 1754-1824, whose granddaughter, Hannah Brown, See next card

1687-1859

Card 2

Doolittle Family Collection

married Alfred Doolittle, 1796-1855, grandson of Ambrose Doolittle. Andrew Hull resided with his grandfather and inherited the Doolittle property. He was a member of the Connecticut legislature, 1788-1813, and held various offices.

The two earliest items are a survey of land in Cheshire, Oct. 23, 1687, made by Thomas Yale for Nehemiah Rice, and a plan for a highway in Cheshire, Sep. 23, 1737, signed by the selectmen, See next card

1687-1859

Card 3

Doolittle Family Collection

Theophiles Yale, William Ward, and Thomas Miles. Included are 49 Cheshire deeds, 1750, 1775-1859, thirty-four of which, 1775-1823, are to Aaron Hull from Lydia and Abigail Arnold (1769), Aaron Atwater (1821) [folio], Thomas Atwater (1798), Samuel Beach (1789), Benjamin Seecher (1601), Jared Bishop and Lydia Arnold, administrators of the estate of Jeremiah Arnold (1769), Israel Bunnell and Benoni Plum (1790), Job and See next card
Doolittle Family Collection

Sibbel Cole (1790, 1791), Asa Doolittle (Apr. 1, 1807), Eliakim Doolittle (1806), Moses Doolittle (1778), Josiah Ferguson (1801), Nathan Gaylord (1605, 1808), Enos and Mary Hall (1790), Isaiah Hall (1798), Joshua Hanshaw (1788), Concurrence Hill (1823), Richardson Hill (1823), Joab Hitchcock (1807), Adonijah Hotchkiss (1792), Jonah Hotchkiss, Sr., and Jonah Hotchkiss Jr. (1804), Lois Hotchkiss (1805), Miles Hull (1782), Munson

See next card

---

Doolittle Family Collection

Marriam (1803), Abner Newton (1799), William and Norab Peck, administrators of the estate of John Peck (1813), Samuel and Lydia Roberts (1791), Amos Sanderson (1817), Ebenezer and Eunice Tuttle (1784), Samuel and Martha Tuttle (1808), and David Way (1790).

Of the remaining fifteen deeds, 1760-1859, one is a fragment to Moses Doolittle (1760); six are to Samuel Doolittle, 1753-1805, three of which

See next card

---

Doolittle Family Collection

(1788, 1792, 1795 [also to Joseph Ives Doolittle]) are from his brother Silas Doolittle, the other three from Ambrose Doolittle, his father (1789), Benjamin Doolittle Jr. (1799), and Joseph Ives Doolittle (1795). Two are from Joseph Ives Doolittle and others to Hannah (Doolittle) Doolittle Brooks (1803, 1808); one each from Jeremiah and Lydya Arnold to Joshua Hanshaw (1767), Sarah Bristol to Alfred Doolittle (1858), Hannah

See next card
Doolittle Family Collection

(Brown) Doolittle to the selectmen of Cheshire (1859), Andrew Hull to Timothy G. Atwater (1815), Charles Ives to James H. Freeman (1855), and George Sanderson and others to Alfred Doolittle (1854)

The remaining papers, 1792-1850, consist largely of receipts, bills, notes, bonds and inventories, and two letters dealing mainly with estates settled by Andrew Hull as administrator or conservator. See next card

Doolittle Family Collection

Servant to 1834, including those of Abraham and Samuel Doolittle, Reuben Hall, Capt. Wm. Brown, Israel Bunnell, Stephen Cook, Reuben Hitchcock and Jared Newton. The few other remaining papers deal with Andrew Hull's estate and affairs of Alfred Doolittle. There are also vital records of the children of Moses Doolittle written by Titus Hull, June 1, 1608; copy of the distribution of the estate of Eunice Hitchcock [1501]; See next card and a letter from Phineas Atwater 1769-1862 [written by his son Sylvester S. Atwater 1813-1844] to William Brown, Guilford [N.Y.], July 3, 1834.

Doolittle Family Collection

1 med. box
1 folio case